AFTER INITIAL INTERVIEW – WHAT HAPPENS NOW

You have received your What To Bring Packet. While this list may not be all inclusive given the details of your particular situation, the list of documents requested are needed, should they apply to you, in order to prepare your case.

Now you must gather up All the information and bring or send All the information requested to my office. Until all the information requested and All the Attorney Fees are returned to my office, your case WILL NOT BE READY TO BE FILED WITH THE COURT.

Once all the requested information and the Attorney fees are paid in full. I will finish preparing your case. It generally takes 2-10 days to complete your paperwork. Once the paperwork is complete, I will contact you to set up an appointment with you to review, sign and file your case with the court.

Remember until all the above has occurred you are NOT in a bankruptcy.

This means that any Lawsuits, Garnishments, Levies, Foreclosures or Repossessions currently in progress will continue.

The Following are IMPORTANT REMINDERS

- 1) Do not use your credit cards any longer. Do not incur any new debt. Do not refinance any property or purchase any new property or vehicles, unless discussed with your attorney.
- 2) Do not sell, transfer, borrow against or give away anything that you have.
- 3) Do not pay back any money that you may have borrowed from friends and family.
- 4) If you are keeping your HOME or VEHICLE you MUST continue to make your payments and keep your insurance current.
- 5) Please do not spend your tax refund until you have discussed how the money will be spent with me.
